What is "preemption" and how could it hurt you?

NAACP and LOCAL Maryland representatives will discuss how preemption amendments to state legislation can block the ability of local governments to pass laws that would protect their residents' health and quality of life. These type of efforts could unfairly hurt all state residents, people of color in particular.

Find out how Anne Arundel County can prevent preemption and protect the ability of county officials to pass laws that support healthy families, a clean environment and good jobs.
